

A decorative border of black line art flowers and leaves surrounds the text. The flowers are stylized with multiple layers of petals, and the leaves are long and pointed.

Creative Activities:

3. Doodling:

As you meditate on God's care for the disadvantaged as referenced in Psalm 82:3-4, consider freeform doodling or drawing related images that come to mind. You might sketch:

- Hands extending food/water/clothing to those in need
- Figures supporting each other with arms around shoulders
- Faces of people reflecting emotions like sorrow, relief or gratitude
- Hands or shields protecting small vulnerable objects/people
- Hearts surrounding words like "defend", "rescue", "deliver"
- Stick figures advocating for justice before an authority

Allow your artwork to reflect different ways God's people can embrace and uphold the disadvantaged both practically and symbolically. There are no "right" or "wrong" doodles - simply create freely as the Spirit guides your thoughts and express your reflections through simple drawings. Revisit your journal artwork later to see if God speaks to you through your creative interpretations of defending the cause of the poor.
